WHO	Mykel &amp; Ruth	The Hawkes will teach all the basics of survival for a Couple or Family in one weekend course that will provide a foundation of skills you can build on the rest of your life. If you only take one proper course on survival in your life, this is the one to take.
WHAT	Couples	You may bring children but this is discouraged and parents assume ALL risks and responsibilities. This is a beginner level course for general survival familiarization, basic skills development, practice &amp; planning. This is meant to be a fun course, there will be no yelling or screaming like the military, the course itself and survival alone are hard enough.
WHEN	07-09 MAR 2014	This is a short fuse notice due to additional time available before filming and may not be available again for another filming year.
WHERE	Double B Ranch	The Double B Ranch has a lovely lodge and each couple gets a room for Friday night included and they can opt (For another $100) to stay Sunday night to recover before traveling as this is highly recommended for safety. A dinner meal is provided Friday night, Saturday morning and Sunday evening. Saturday night is in the field in the shelter you make.
